News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Her Friend's Engagement.

Miss Kittie Grems was hostess to the Young Ladies' Bridge club Friday afternoon. The members of the club had been on the tip toe of expectancy for several days in regard to rumors of the engagement of one of their number, but as they had been assured that if such an event did happen to the suspected one, everything would be so quiet that no one would know a thing about it until the climax, the wedding, had really happened. So the anticipation of nice little pre-nuptial affairs had almost died and all supposed that the club meeting Friday afternoon would be the ordinary playing of games and end in a tearful farewell. As the game of six-hand euchre progressed all thought of anything unusual vanished, for there was nothing suggestive in sight. The last game was interrupted at one table, however, when a telegram was received by Mrs. M. L. Beattie, one of the club's guests. The telegram did not portend sad news, and Mrs. Beattie's manner indicated her willingness to share the news the message had brought her, and everybody stopped to hear, and, to the entire satisfaction of the hostess, her guests were genuinely surprised when Mrs. Beattie read the announcement of the engagement of "Miss Hazel Ritchie to Mr. John I. Hoffman, the wedding to be on Christmas day." After the excitement had subsided the hostess summoned the bride-to-be and the other guests to the dining room, where a three-course red and white luncheon was in readiness. Miss Della Grems and Mrs. Beattie were the hostesses for the luncheon, suggestive in every detail of the coming Christmas wedding. The buffet was massed with red and white carnations. A large crystal candelabra with white shade was the centerpiece for the table. Hanging from the shade were little cupids, representing a complete wedding party. The place cards were heart-shaped and pierced with arrows. During the last course toasts in small pen-sketched envelopes that were attached with white ribbons to a Thanksgiving "wishbone" were passed around and read. The first, "To the Bride and Groom," was read by Miss Kittie Grems, and the last one, "To the Bridegroom," fell to Miss Ritchie, the bride-elect, to read. Miss Ritchie is quite a favorite with the Young Ladies' Bridge club, and the afternoon's meeting that had ended in so unusual a manner was a happy occasion. The members of the club are Miss Hazel Ritchie, Miss Kittie Grems, Miss Rena Sturm, Miss Brownie Toel, Miss Marie Brink, Miss Maud Bainum, Miss Laura Barmann, Miss Elise Jackson and Mrs. Oliver Bovard. The other guests of the afternoon were Mrs. M. L. Beattie, Mrs. M. G. Tate, Miss Julia Tate, Miss Nelle Campbell and Miss Alice Hoffman of Ney, O., sister of the bride-groom-elect.

The guests were Mrs. S. K. Chappell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bare and son. On Thanksgiving day a dinner was given to Mrs. Meedham by Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Chappell. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bare and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Chappell and daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Wallace, Mrs. Leon Chappell.

Albert Bliley and Charles Ryan of St. Joseph. After the bountiful dinner which was served by Misses Lucy and Mary Bliley, the gentlemen went for an afternoon of hunting, while the ladies attended the play given by the college dramatic club at Conception.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HEADACHY, COSTIVE, BILIOUS—"CASCARETS"

Sick Headache, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach, Mean Liver and Bowels Are Clogged—Cheer Up!

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.—Advertisement.

Penalty Is Five Years in Penitentiary, Five Thousand Fine, or Both—Text Book Is Held Objectionable—Many Women Attend Trial.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Otoman Zar Adusht Hanish, "high priest of Mazdaznan" and leader of the Mazdaznan cult of sun worshipers, said to number about 14,000 in different cities, was found guilty by a federal jury at Chicago of sending objectionable literature by express in violation of the interstate commerce laws. He may be sentenced to five years' imprisonment, to pay a $5,000 fine, or both.

The verdict brands as unfit the circulation of the text book of the cult. The book was read to the jury and almost no other evidence was offered by either side. The book prescribed sun baths and herb remedies, but its striking feature and that objected to by the government was a frank and lengthy treatise on sex relations.

"This is a day of informal discussion of sex problems," said Judge Mack in his charge to the jury. "There is a freedom in these matters now that has never been countenanced before. These discussions are, however, carried on in a serious manner. If you find that the lessons in this book are intended to discuss serious problems in a serious manner and if you find that the book is not intended for general circulation you are to find the defendant not guilty."

Hanish was trapped by Dana Angier, a postal inspector, who wrote from Brookfield, Mo., asking for a copy of the text book of the cult, giving the fictitious name of "Julia B. Gardner." Hanish sent the book by express to avoid conflict with postal regulations.

Burning of incense, songs to Mazdaznan and alleged Persian hymns by persons supposed to be members of the cult were features of the trial and kept court bailiffs busy suppressing such demonstrations in court and the corridor outside. Well dressed women were prominent among the cult devotees and held their places throughout the trial, though Judge Mack suggested that all retire during the reading.

Hanish is at liberty under bonds of $10,000. Motions will be heard and sentence pronounced by Judge Mack on his return from New York.

PACKERS HAVE EGG CORNER

Inquiry Said to Show They Control 55 Per Cent in Storage.

Washington, Nov. 29.—A new phase of the cost of living problem was brought to the attention of the department of agriculture. T. P. Gill, secretary of the Irish board of agriculture, told Secretary Houston that speculators in the large cities of the United States were actively buying up this year's short American potato crop and planning to hold out for high prices, counting upon the existing quarantine against potatoes from many foreign countries to aid them in their undertaking. Mr. Gill is here to urge the removal of the embargo on potatoes from his country.

Representative McKellar of Tennessee, author of a pending bill to prohibit the keeping of products in cold storage for more than ninety days, was in conference with department of justice officials over the department's investigation of the storage of eggs, poultry and dairy products. It is said that a preliminary inquiry has revealed the fact that 55 per cent of the present egg supply held in storage is in the hands of the great meat packers of the country.

SUFFRAGE CLANS GATHER

Women Flock From Every State to Washington for Big Convention.

Washington, Nov. 29.—To the call of votes for women, suffragists from every state are flocking to the capital for a mammoth convention which opened today and continues a week.

Visits to President Wilson, hearings before the congressional committees on constitutional amendments to enfranchise women, addresses by senators and representatives and such leaders of suffrage as Miss Jane Addams, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, State Senator Helen Ring Robinson of Colorado, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Ella S. Stewart and Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCullough will feature a week of meetings. Such organizations as the National American Woman Suffrage association, the National College Woman's Suffrage association, the Congressional union, the Woman's Political union of New York and the Men's League for Suffrage will be represented.

Militant Chains Self to Chair.

London, Nov. 29.—Militant suffragettes are returning to their old tactics. One of them fastened herself to a chair in Caxton hall with a chain and padlock, from which point of vantage she shrieked "Votes for women." Joseph Albert Pease, M. P., was forced to suspend his speech for several minutes while the stewards endeavored to remove the suffragette. They were forced to smash the chair before this could be done.

On the way to St. Joseph Mr. Rhoades became so pleasantly engaged in conversation with a pretty girl that he did not know anything until he was hustled out of the train at the Union station. Mr. Miller had to enjoy himself all afternoon alone and did not again see his Maryville friend until ready to take the train home. Her Seventeenth Birthday.

Mrs. Harry Shipps gave her daughter, Miss Marie Shipps, a surprise party Friday evening that was a complete success, in observance of her seventeenth birthday anniversary. Soon after the arrival of the guests a large white birthday cake was brought in and placed on the table and seventeen pink and white candles placed on it and lighted. The guests named the candles and a good deal of concern was exhibited among some as to which candle would burn the longest. Two of the candles burned out at the same time, but at good-night time each member of the party seemed to know which was the favored one. The candles were an hour in burning, and during that time Mrs. Shipps asked each one their birth month and the date and read their characteristics, "according to a well known authority." The birthday cake was cut after this and served with ice cream, and with story telling, piano music and singing, the merry makers remained until midnight, when the rain ceased long enough to allow them to go home. A guessing contest, in which no one was successful, not even the honor guest, was in correctly answering "Who Sent the Dozen Carnations." Miss Shipps was the recipient of many nice presents. The guests were Misses Gladys Yeaman, Blanche Gray, Katherine Carpenter, Hazel Vandervoort, Blanche Shipps, Messrs. Phillip Parcher, Wayland Ford, Jesse Miller, Jr., Fred Vandersloot, Losick Holmes, Harry Bailey of Burlington Junction, and Miss Mary Lynn Mumpower of Kingston and Mr. Chris Level of Dearborn, who are week-end guests of the Shipps family.

SHANK QUITS JOB AS MAYOR OF INDIANAPOLIS

Resignation is Result of Labor Troubles.

Indianapolis, Nov. 29.—Samuel Lewis Shank resigned as mayor of Indianapolis. The resignation is the result of labor troubles in the city and a threat of impeachment proceedings by a committee of business men unless further disorders were averted. Harry R. Wallace, city comptroller, succeeded to the mayor's office.

Mr. Shank tendered his resignation after he had conferred with a number of union labor officials regarding an impending strike of teamsters, who told him there was little hope of averting the strike. Mayor Shank announced recently that he would resign if the threatened strike could not be stopped.

Mayor Shank's attitude during the recent street car strike, when he let it be known that he did not wish policemen to ride on the cars manned by strikebreakers, caused the resignation of Superintendent of Police Martin J. Hyland and President William E. Davis of the board of public safety.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Retrenchment, Rather Than Expansion, Characterizes Situation.

New York, Nov. 29.—Dun's Review of Trade says:

Lessened activity in industrial channels reflects prevailing uncertainty regarding the future. The distribution of merchandise for immediate requirements continues large, but retrenchment rather than expansion characterizes the situation. Caution is general in entering upon forward commitments and new enterprises are limited, while economy is practiced in numerous quarters. Labor is not so well employed and more machinery is idle in iron and steel, the leading mills now running considerably below their full capacity.

Curtailment of operations results mainly from the restricted buying by transporting companies which experience difficulty in obtaining needed funds for equipment and extensions. The opening of the eastern freight rate inquiry and the beginning of the currency debate in the senate attracted attention.

Failures for the week numbered 356.

Society of Spugs Spreads Rapidly.

New York, Nov. 29.—The fight against the useless giving of Christmas present—not to give less, but to give discriminately and intelligently—is spreading throughout the country with the approach of the holidays. The Spugs, as the Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving has named its members, are supplying copies of membership cards and bylaws with which to inaugurate branch societies in various parts of the country.

GEN. RABAGO KILLS HIMSELF

Military Governor, Losing Victoria, Commits Suicide.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN SLAIN.

Rebels Blow Up Troop Train and Butcher All in Party—Penitentiary Razed and Inmates Free—Captain Jamez Put to Death.

Mexico City, Nov. 29.—Like General Sales after the battle of Rellano, in March, 1912, General Antonio Rabago, military governor of the state of Tamaulipas, killed himself after losing Victoria, the capital. The suicide of General Rabago is not admitted by the government, but the news is contained in a private telegram to his relatives.

Among the incidents connected with the capture of Victoria by the rebels one is related of the execution of Captain Thomas Jamez. He was told that his life would be spared if he foreswore the government.

He refused and was given an hour for meditation. When the hour had elapsed and his guards had come for him, he asked to be taken before the man who ordered his execution. He embraced the military judge, assuring him that he cherished no resentment and then marched to the place designated for his death.

There he distributed among the firing squad all but one of a package of cigarettes. This he lighted himself and signalled the officer in command to give the order to fire.

The constitutionalists burned the state capitol and razed the penitentiary, after liberating all prisoners.

Reports from the north continue to indicate increasing rebel strength south of Saltillo. Since the dynamiting of a troop train no effort has been made to resume traffic, the railway men refusing to take out the trains.

It is reported that after dynamiting the train the rebels attacked the troops, who numbered about 100, and thirty or forty women and children belonging to the soldiers, killing every one of them. The report has not been confirmed.

Reports of two fresh victories to the south arrived at Carranza's headquarters from Rosario, Sinoloa. It was reported that Colonel Rafael Buelna defeated a strong column of federals at Santla. The loss on both sides was given as 200 killed. The insurgents stated that they had captured two machine guns, 100 rifles and much ammunition.

The insurgent leader, Isuaro Ibanes, reported that his forces had routed a federal force which disembarked at San Blas to march to the relief of the garrison at Tepic City.

Villa Moves South.

El Paso, Nov. 29.—The movement of General Villa's troops to the south to attack the federals' stronghold at Chihuahua was begun when nearly 1,000 men, under General Hernandez, departed from Juarez.

DR. CRAIG ON TRIAL

Woman Killed Self Is Theory of Defense in Murder Case.

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 29.—Imposing legal forces lined up and engaged in the preliminary skirmish of the trial of Dr. William B. Craig of Indianapolis for the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe. Thirty-one talesmen were examined. Stress was laid by the prosecution examiners on circumstantial evidence and no talesman who acknowledged that he would not convict as readily on evidence of this character as he would on direct evidence was accepted by them. Equally persistent were the defendant's lawyers that no man should hold a seat in the jury box who had formed an unalterable opinion that Dr. Knabe was murdered.

Jury Gets List of Contributions.

New York, Nov. 29.—A list of campaign contributions to the Progressive and Republican parties in 1911, 1912 and 1913 was delivered to District Attorney Whitman from the office of the secretary of state at Albany. These documents were demanded by Mr. Whitman for use in his investigation of charges that campaign contributions were extorted from state contractors. According to information at the district attorney's office Mr. Whitman's request for the papers was ignored until he had recourse to a grand jury subpoena.

SECRETARY M'ADOO REASSURES BANKERS

Says New Law Will Impose No Hardships on Them.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Secretary McAdoo issued a statement, declaring that banks throughout the country reported to be restricting credits in order to meet the provisions of the expected currency law are making a mistake. He announced the resources in the treasury would be at the disposal of the banks to aid them in complying with the new law when it is put on the statute books.

Obstacles encountered by the senate Democrats in their consideration of the administration currency bill in conference threatened to extend the meeting over into next week. Practically no material amendments were made in the draft as presented by Chairman Owen and the five administration Democrats on the banking and currency committee.

Arrangements were made for the opening of the regular session of congress on Monday. Acting Majority Leader Johnson of the house, at the request of the president, conferred with Senate Leader Kern, and it was arranged to have the president read his regular message to congress at a session Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

AMNESTY FOR OFFENDERS

Untermyer Tells How to Restore Confidence in Industries.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 29.—The time has come, in the opinion of Samuel Untermyer, who was chief counsel for the Pujo committee, investigating the money trust, to restore confidence in the industries of the United States, including the railways. How this could be accomplished, he outlined in a speech before the Economic club here.

"A halt should be called," he said, "upon further governmental investigations into the private crimes in the looting of corporations, the slate should be wiped clean and the work of reframing and strengthening the laws to make impossible repetitions of previous offenses should be begun with a general amnesty to past offenders not yet apprehended."

TOLMAN TO SERVE SENTENCE

King of Loan Sharks Given Six Months in Penitentiary.

New York, Nov. 29.—Daniel H. Tolman, "king of the loan sharks," must serve six months in the penitentiary for usury. In so deciding the appellate division upheld the lower court which imposed the sentence.

Tolman based his appeal on the ground that the act of usury was committed by a woman employed without his knowledge or consent. The court held, however, that in charging 200 per cent interest on a loan, she acted in behalf of her employer and to his advantage, and that he was therefore bound by her act.

Tolman formerly operated a string of money lending shops throughout the country.

ALL TOOK A SECOND GLANCE

You have read in novels how a great emition will transform a mans countenance; how a poet's face, in the hour of inspiration, sets the sparrows singing on the housetops; how that of a man suddenly ruined causes unemotional horses to stagger. My own features are of the commonplace type—nobody thinks of regarding them twice—yet I, too, have had my experiences, declares a contributor to Punch.

They occurred on the morning when I received a letter from Phyllis, which said briefly, "Yes, I think so." Not much in that, you may say, but when I tell you it was the delayed answer to a proposal of marriage, you will understand. Shortly after reading it I stepped out into the stereet to walk to the office.

What a walk that was! The light in my eyes seemed to brighten the very sun; the song in my heart was echoed from a hundred motor-busses. Never have the winds of May wooed so winningly a February morning.

Every man I met turned his head as if loath to take his eyes from my irradiated countenance. Every girl seemed to take the keenest pleasure in my happiness, and smiled at me prettily as if infected by its contagion. "'Tis well," I thought (in blank verse), "that Phyllis now is pledged to me, or by my troth, these flattering glances shot from beauty's eyes might make my heart unfaithful."

It was only when I reached the office and looked in the glass that I discovered the large black smudge on the end of my nose.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Her Friend's Engagement.

Miss Kittie Grems was hostess to the Young Ladies' Bridge club Friday afternoon. The members of the club had been on the tip toe of expectancy for several days in regard to rumors of the engagement of one of their number, but as they had been assured that if such an event did happen to the suspected one, everything would be so quiet that no one would know a thing about it until the climax, the wedding, had really happened. So the anticipation of nice little pre-nuptial affairs had almost died and all supposed that the club meeting Friday afternoon would be the ordinary playing of games and end in a tearful farewell. As the game of six-hand euchre progressed all thought of anything unusual vanished, for there was nothing suggestive in sight. The last game was interrupted at one table, however, when a telegram was received by Mrs. M. L. Beattie, one of the club's guests. The telegram did not portend sad news, and Mrs. Beattie's manner indicated her willingness to share the news the message had brought her, and everybody stopped to hear, and, to the entire satisfaction of the hostess, her guests were genuinely surprised when Mrs. Beattie read the announcement of the engagement of "Miss Hazel Ritchie to Mr. John I. Hoffman, the wedding to be on Christmas day." After the excitement had subsided the hostess summoned the bride-to-be and the other guests to the dining room, where a three-course red and white luncheon was in readiness. Miss Della Grems and Mrs. Beattie were the hostesses for the luncheon, suggestive in every detail of the coming Christmas wedding. The buffet was massed with red and white carnations. A large crystal candelabra with white shade was the centerpiece for the table. Hanging from the shade were little cupids, representing a complete wedding party. The place cards were heart-shaped and pierced with arrows. During the last course toasts in small pen-sketched envelopes that were attached with white ribbons to a Thanksgiving "wishbone" were passed around and read. The first, "To the Bride and Groom," was read by Miss Kittie Grems, and the last one, "To the Bridegroom," fell to Miss Ritchie, the bride-elect, to read. Miss Ritchie is quite a favorite with the Young Ladies' Bridge club, and the afternoon's meeting that had ended in so unusual a manner was a happy occasion. The members of the club are Miss Hazel Ritchie, Miss Kittie Grems, Miss Rena Sturm, Miss Brownie Toel, Miss Marie Brink, Miss Maud Bainum, Miss Laura Barmann, Miss Elise Jackson and Mrs. Oliver Bovard. The other guests of the afternoon were Mrs. M. L. Beattie, Mrs. M. G. Tate, Miss Julia Tate, Miss Nelle Campbell and Miss Alice Hoffman of Ney, O., sister of the bridegroom-elect.

The guests were Mrs. S. K. Chappell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bare and son. On Thanksgiving day a dinner was given to Mrs. Meedham by Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Chappell. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bare and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Chappell and daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Wallace, Mrs. Leon Chappell.

S. O. Dunn of Chicago, Who is Back on a Visit, is Well Known Here—Was With the Tribune Here.

S. O. Dunn, formerly editor of the Tribune here, under the proprietorship of E. E. E. McJimsey and Curtis Wray, is visiting in Maryville this week with his many friends. Mr. Dunn is now editor of the Railway Age, with offices in Chicago. In addition to being editor of this railroad publication he writes special articles for various magazines.

Mr. Dunn started his newspaper career at Quitman when a small boy, working at the "case" and washing rollers. He went from that town to Burlington Junction, and then came to Maryville, where he worked on the Tribune for several years. His rise in journalistic work has been rapid, and he is now receiving a fine salary. Mr. Dunn, in company with George B. Baker, visited Quitman and Burlington Junction on Friday and enjoyed visits there with old-time friends.

Mr. Dunn received word Saturday from the division superintendent of the Wabash that a party of railroad officials would pass through Maryville on Monday on the 10:42 Wabash in a special car and invited Mr. Dunn to make the trip with them on to St. Louis. He accepted the invitation, and from St. Louis will go to Chicago.

Mr. Dunn is not very far along in his thirties, and has made a record for himself in his profession that few men can make. He worked every inch of the way, too, and has a knowledge of men and the affairs of men that has been gained by study and personal contact.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Sick Headache, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach, Mean Liver and Bowels Are Clogged—Cheer Up!

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.—Advertisement.

HANISH IS FOUND GUILTY

Sun Worshipers' Leader Convicted by Jury at Chicago.

TRAPPED BY POSTAL INSPECTOR

Penalty Is Five Years in Penitentiary, Five Thousand Fine, or Both—Text Book Is Held Objectionable—Many Women Attend Trial.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Otoman Zar Adusht Hanish, "high priest of Mazdaznan" and leader of the Mazdaznan cult of sun worshipers, said to number about 14,000 in different cities, was found guilty by a federal jury at Chicago of sending objectionable literature by express in violation of the interstate commerce laws. He may be sentenced to five years' imprisonment, to pay a $5,000 fine, or both.

The verdict brands as unfit the circulation of the text book of the cult. The book was read to the jury and almost no other evidence was offered by either side. The book prescribed sun baths and herb remedies, but its striking feature and that objected to by the government was a frank and lengthy treatise on sex relations.

"This is a day of informal discussion of sex problems," said Judge Mack in his charge to the jury. "There is a freedom in these matters now that has never been countenanced before. These discussions are, however, carried on in a serious manner. If you find that the lessons in this book are intended to discuss serious problems in a serious manner and if you find that the book is not intended for general circulation you are to find the defendant not guilty."

Hanish was trapped by Dana Angier, a postal inspector, who wrote from Brookfield, Mo., asking for a copy of the text book of the cult, giving the fictitious name of "Julia B. Gardner." Hanish sent the book by express to avoid conflict with postal regulations.

Burning of incense, songs to Mazdaznan and alleged Persian hymns by persons supposed to be members of the cult were features of the trial and kept court bailiffs busy suppressing such demonstrations in court and the corridor outside. Well dressed women were prominent among the cult devotees and held their places throughout the trial, though Judge Mack suggested that all retire during the reading.

PACKERS HAVE EGG CORNER

Inquiry Said to Show They Control 55 Per Cent in Storage.

Washington, Nov. 29.—A new phase of the cost of living problem was brought to the attention of the department of agriculture. T. P. Gill, secretary of the Irish board of agriculture, told Secretary Houston that speculators in the large cities of the United States were actively buying up this year's short American potato crop and planning to hold out for high prices, counting upon the existing quarantine against potatoes from many foreign countries to aid them in their undertaking. Mr. Gill is here to urge the removal of the embargo on potatoes from his country.

Representative McKellar of Tennessee, author of a pending bill to prohibit the keeping of products in cold storage for more than ninety days, was in conference with department of justice officials over the department's investigation of the storage of eggs, poultry and dairy products. It is said that a preliminary inquiry has revealed the fact that 55 per cent of the present egg supply held in storage is in the hands of the great meat packers of the country.

Washington, Nov. 29.—To the call of votes for women, suffragists from every state are flocking to the capital for a mammoth convention which opened today and continues a week.

Visits to President Wilson, hearings before the congressional committees on constitutional amendments to enfranchise women, addresses by senators and representatives and such leaders of suffrage as Miss Jane Addams, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, State Senator Helen Ring Robinson of Colorado, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Ella S. Stewart and Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCullough will feature a week of meetings. Such organizations as the National American Woman Suffrage association, the National College Woman's Suffrage association, the Congressional union, the Woman's Political union of New York and the Men's League for Suffrage will be represented.

Militant Chains Self to Chair.

London, Nov. 29.—Militant suffragettes are returning to their old tactics. One of them fastened herself to a chair in Caxton hall with a chain and padlock, from which point of vantage she shrieked "Votes for women." Joseph Albert Pease, M. P., was forced to suspend his speech for several minutes while the stewards endeavored to remove the suffragette. They were forced to smash the chair before this could be done.

All Because of a Pretty Girl.

W. A. Miller of the Bee Hive Shoe company and Edgar Rhoades of the Corwin-Murrin clothing house spent Thanksgiving day in St. Joseph on business—that is, Mr. Miller did, and Mr. Rhoades was supposed to. It was agreed between them to get off at the Francis street station to reach their places of business sooner, then, business over, to meet at a hotel and have dinner together, and then take in the picture shows until train time. On the way to St. Joseph Mr. Rhoades became so pleasantly engaged in conversation with a pretty girl that he did not know anything until he was hustled out of the train at the Union station. Mr. Miller had to enjoy himself all afternoon alone and did not again see his Maryville friend until ready to take the train home. Mr. Miller declares he will never go off with Mr. Rhoades again until that susceptible young bachelor is safe in a home of his own.

Her Seventeenth Birthday.

Mrs. Harry Shipps gave her daughter, Miss Marie Shipps, a surprise party Friday evening that was a complete success, in observance of her seventeenth birthday anniversary. Soon after the arrival of the guests a large white birthday cake was brought in and placed on the table and seventeen pink and white candles placed on it and lighted. The guests named the candles and a good deal of concern was exhibited among some as to which candle would burn the longest. Two of the candles burned out at the same time, but at good-night time each member of the party seemed to know which was the favored one. The candles were an hour in burning, and during that time Mrs. Shipps asked each one their birth month and the date and read their characteristics, "according to a well known authority." The birthday cake was cut after this and served with ice cream, and with story telling, piano music and singing, the merry makers remained until midnight, when the rain ceased long enough to allow them to go home. A guessing contest, in which no one was successful, not even the honor guest, was in correctly answering "Who Sent the Dozen Carnations." Miss Shipps was the recipient of many nice presents. The guests were Misses Gladys Yeaman, Blanche Gray, Katherine Carpenter, Hazel Vandervoort, Blanche Shipps, Messrs. Phillip Parcher, Wayland Ford, Jesse Miller, Jr., Fred Vandersloot, Losick Holmes, Harry Bailey of Burlington Junction, and Miss Mary Lynn Mumpower of Kingston and Mr. Chris Level of Dearborn, who are week-end guests of the Shipps family.

SHANK QUITS JOB AS MAYOR OF INDIANAPOLIS

Resignation is Result of Labor Troubles.

Indianapolis, Nov. 29.—Samuel Lewis Shank resigned as mayor of Indianapolis. The resignation is the result of labor troubles in the city and a threat of impeachment proceedings by a committee of business men unless further disorders were averted. Harry R. Wallace, city comptroller, succeeded to the mayor's office.

Mr. Shank tendered his resignation after he had conferred with a number of union labor officials regarding an impending strike of teamsters, who told him there was little hope of averting the strike. Mayor Shank announced recently that he would resign if the threatened strike could not be stopped.

Mayor Shank's attitude during the recent street car strike, when he let it be known that he did not wish policemen to ride on the cars manned by strikebreakers, caused the resignation of Superintendent of Police Martin J. Hyland and President William E. Davis of the board of public safety.

New York, Nov. 29.—Dun's Review of Trade says:

Lessened activity in industrial channels reflects prevailing uncertainty regarding the future. The distribution of merchandise for immediate requirements continues large, but retrenchment rather than expansion characterizes the situation. Caution is general in entering upon forward commitments and new enterprises are limited, while economy is practiced in numerous quarters. Labor is not so well employed and more machinery is idle in iron and steel, the leading mills now running considerably below their full capacity.

Curtailment of operations results mainly from the restricted buying by transporting companies which experience difficulty in obtaining needed funds for equipment and extensions. The opening of the eastern freight rate inquiry and the beginning of the currency debate in the senate attracted attention.

Society of Spugs Spreads Rapidly.

New York, Nov. 29.—The fight against the useless giving of Christmas present—not to give less, but to give discriminately and intelligently—is spreading throughout the country with the approach of the holidays. The Spugs, as the Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving has named its members, are supplying copies of membership cards and bylaws with which to inaugurate branch societies in various parts of the country.

Carpenter Appointed Governor of Moro

Manila, Nov. 29.—Frank W. Carpenter, executive secretary of the Philippines, was appointed governor of the province of Moro. He succeeds Brigadier General John J. Pershing and is the first civilian governor of the province.

GEN. RABAGO KILLS HIMSELF

Military Governor, Losing Victoria, Commits Suicide.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN SLAIN.

Rebels Blow Up Troop Train and Butcher All in Party—Penitentiary Razed and Inmates Free—Captain Jamez Put to Death.

Mexico City, Nov. 29.—Like General Sales after the battle of Rellano, in March, 1912, General Antonio Rabago, military governor of the state of Tamaulipas, killed himself after losing Victoria, the capital. The suicide of General Rabago is not admitted by the government, but the news is contained in a private telegram to his relatives.

Among the incidents connected with the capture of Victoria by the rebels one is related of the execution of Captain Thomas Jamez. He was told that his life would be spared if he foreswore the government.

He refused and was given an hour for meditation. When the hour had elapsed and his guards had come for him, he asked to be taken before the man who ordered his execution. He embraced the military judge, assuring him that he cherished no resentment and then marched to the place designated for his death.

There he distributed among the firing squad all but one of a package of cigarettes. This he lighted himself and signalled the officer in command to give the order to fire.

The constitutionalists burned the state capitol and razed the penitentiary, after liberating all prisoners.

Reports from the north continue to indicate increasing rebel strength south of Saltillo. Since the dynamiting of a troop train no effort has been made to resume traffic, the railway men refusing to take out the trains.

It is reported that after dynamiting the train the rebels attacked the troops, who numbered about 100, and thirty or forty women and children belonging to the soldiers, killing every one of them. The report has not been confirmed.

Reports of two fresh victories to the south arrived at Carranza's headquarters from Rosario, Sinoloa. It was reported that Colonel Rafael Buelna defeated a strong column of federals at Santla. The loss on both sides was given as 200 killed. The insurgents stated that they had captured two machine guns, 100 rifles and much ammunition.

The insurgent leader, Isuaro Ibanes, reported that his forces had routed a federal force which disembarked at San Blas to march to the relief of the garrison at Tepic City.

Villa Moves South.

El Paso, Nov. 29.—The movement of General Villa's troops to the south to attack the federals' stronghold at Chihuahua was begun when nearly 1,000 men, under General Hernandez, departed from Juarez.

DR. CRAIG ON TRIAL

Woman Killed Self Is Theory of Defense in Murder Case.

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 29.—Imposing legal forces lined up and engaged in the preliminary skirmish of the trial of Dr. William B. Craig of Indianapolis for the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe. Thirty-one talesmen were examined. Stress was laid by the prosecution examiners on circumstantial evidence and no talesman who acknowledged that he would not convict as readily on evidence of this character as he would on direct evidence was accepted by them. Equally persistent were the defendant's lawyers that no man should hold a seat in the jury box who had formed an unalterable opinion that Dr. Knabe was murdered.

Jury Gets List of Contributions.

New York, Nov. 29.—A list of campaign contributions to the Progressive and Republican parties in 1911, 1912 and 1913 was delivered to District Attorney Whitman from the office of the secretary of state at Albany. These documents were demanded by Mr. Whitman for use in his investigation of charges that campaign contributions were extorted from state contractors. According to information at the district attorney's office Mr. Whitman's request for the papers was ignored until he had recourse to a grand jury subpoena.

Canada to Probe High Cost of Living.

Montreal, Nov. 29.—The Canadian government will shortly create a commission to inquire into the high cost of living, according to an Ottawa dispatch. The dispatch states that the government has had the subject under consideration for some time, and that statistical experts of the labor department have been making a searching analysis of prices throughout the Dominion and comparing them with those of other countries, especially the United States.

Sioux City Man Dives From Building.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 29.—Charles G. Casavant dived from the sixth story of the Iowa building and struck on his head on the tile floor of the rotunda, ten feet from the girl in charge of the cigar stand, and was instantly killed. He leaves a widow and four children. A note pinned in his hat read, "Life is a burden."

SECRETARY M'ADOO REASSURES BANKERS

Washington, Nov. 29.—Secretary McAdoo issued a statement, declaring that banks throughout the country reported to be restricting credits in order to meet the provisions of the expected currency law are making a mistake. He announced the resources in the treasury would be at the disposal of the banks to aid them in complying with the new law when it is put on the statute books.

Obstacles encountered by the senate Democrats in their consideration of the administration currency bill in conference threatened to extend the meeting over into next week. Practically no material amendments were made in the draft as presented by Chairman Owen and the five administration Democrats on the banking and currency committee.

Arrangements were made for the opening of the regular session of congress on Monday. Acting Majority Leader Johnson of the house, at the request of the president, conferred with Senate Leader Kern, and it was arranged to have the president read his regular message to congress at a session Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

AMNESTY FOR OFFENDERS

Untermyer Tells How to Restore Confidence in Industries.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 29.—The time has come, in the opinion of Samuel Untermyer, who was chief counsel for the Pujo committee, investigating the money trust, to restore confidence in the industries of the United States, including the railways. How this could be accomplished, he outlined in a speech before the Economic club here.

"A halt should be called," he said, "upon further governmental investigations into the private crimes in the looting of corporations, the slate should be wiped clean and the work of reframing and strengthening the laws to make impossible repetitions of previous offenses should be begun with a general amnesty to past offenders not yet apprehended."

King of Loan Sharks Given Six Months in Penitentiary.

New York, Nov. 29.—Daniel H. Tolman, "king of the loan sharks," must serve six months in the penitentiary for usury. In so deciding the appellate division upheld the lower court which imposed the sentence.

Tolman based his appeal on the ground that the act of usury was committed by a woman employed without his knowledge or consent. The court held, however, that in charging 200 per cent interest on a loan, she acted in behalf of her employer and to his advantage, and that he was therefore bound by her act.

Tolman formerly operated a string of money lending shops throughout the country.

ALL TOOK A SECOND GLANCE

You have read in novels how a great emition will transform a man's countenance; how a poet's face, in the hour of inspiration, sets the sparrows singing on the housetops; how that of a man suddenly ruined causes unemotional horses to stagger. My own features are of the commonplace type—nobody thinks of regarding them twice—yet I, too, have had my experiences, declares a contributor to Punch.

They occurred on the morning when I received a letter from Phyllis, which said briefly, "Yes, I think so." Not much in that, you may say, but when I tell you it was the delayed answer to a proposal of marriage, you will understand. Shortly after reading it I stepped out into the stereet to walk to the office.

What a walk that was! The light in my eyes seemed to brighten the very sun; the song in my heart was echoed from a hundred motor-busses. Never have the winds of May wooed so winningly a February morning.

Every man I met turned his head as if loath to take his eyes from my irradiated countenance. Every girl seemed to take the keenest pleasure in my happiness, and smiled at me prettily as if infected by its contagion. "'Tis well," I thought (in blank verse), "that Phyllis now is pledged to me, or by my troth, these flattering glances shot from beauty's eyes might make my heart unfaithful."

It was only when I reached the office and looked in the glass that I discovered the large black smudge on the end of my nose.
